The ship is to be anchored in mid-ocean between South America and Africa as a refueling station for trans-Atlantic planes. Plans were made to be able to align upon the ship to take on fuel or undergo repairs, while a powerful crane will lift airplanes from the water and take them aboard.

Waging Desperate Battle to Hold Great Wall From Japs

PEIPING, March 6.—Twenty miles north of Koussing Chang, Hsia-Liang's army is making its last stand against the Japanese pushing toward the Great Wall of China from Jehol city, Chinese headquarters said this afternoon.

Koussing is just inside the wall 60 miles southeast of here and 50 miles from Jehol. There is a pass through the wall at this point.

FIGHTING REPORTED

The communists said there was fighting at Hefengchow pass, 45 miles southeast of Jehol city, and also in the northern sector near Chienchiang, where Chinese and Japanese engaged a Japanese force near town of Weichang.

Canadian Wheat Climbs to Higher Levels for Second Day

WINNIPEG, March 6.—The banking holiday in the United States with consequent closing of all United States grain exchanges, put new life into the wheat market.

For the second day Canadian wheat sprouted to higher levels and again the farmer smiled. At the market's close an even two cents a bushel was added to the 25 cents gained on Saturday.

When the bull began close of trading, number one northern wheat was selling at 52 1/2 cents a bushel. The November delivery brought 53 cents, the October future 53 cents. The power behind the rise was buying orders from the United States.

There has been considerable talk of Canada wheat and Chicago and other United States interests for some time and today the traders back-tracked rapidly in their covering operations.

The family and close friends were at the bedside. Mrs. Floyd Knicker, a daughter, was holding one of her father's hands when he died. Vivian Graham, a grand-daughter, held the other. The added little group

WHEAT VALUES CHALK UP TWO CENT ADVANCE

WINNIPEG, March 6.—Canadian wheat values advanced another active session with a reported burst of buying from southern interest at the close, wheat futures marked up a more than two-cent advance in their prices to higher levels on the Winnipeg Grain Market today.

Values at the month were 60 cents above Saturday's close. May delivery at 67 1/2, July 52 1/2 and October 50 cents.

Not since last fall have wheat values been at such a high price level. The day's action was a repetition of Saturday's early trading, when the current season first was started.

Closing of the Chicago board of trade has resulted in that market's business being transferred to the local pit. Busted corn, rolled into the pit in "economic" waves, shot prices upward rapidly as buyers sought to keep with the influx of business.

Export trade was restricted by the fluctuation in money exchange quotations but it was believed a fair-sized trade was worked from Pacific Coast ports.

Trading values were of fair volume, the advance in prices having brought out a little more wheat in the country and also a number of grain shippers, prices totaling more than 500,000 bushels Saturday.

Trade volume was large and the market experienced a moderate rise in prices, wheat and active trade with present export trade and active trade with present export trade and active trade with present export trade.

Increased strength put Saturday's wheat slightly but traders there were not so much as the previous day. Canadian States again set the gold standard.

A demand for Canadian and Australian wheat, however, is continuing. A report from a small inquiry for each wheat and coarse grain cash interest was disappointing. Foreign demand generally at unchanged levels.
